DEMOCRATS BID FOR NEGRO VOTES

COL. WATTESSON ADVISES RACE TO DIVIDE ITS VOTES IN AN INTERVIEW GIVEN IN NEW YORK

"Let the negro make peace with the old master class in the South. That's the road to race pacification." This was the message that Col. Henry Wattesson came from Kentucky Friday to deliver to colored men of the nation. Mr. Wattesson's views were given in an interview in the Hoffman house. "The time has come," said Col. Wattesson, "for the negro to divide his vote and thus become a factor in politics, such as he is not today, a voting element."

"There is more race feeling in some parts of the North today than in the South. Look at Springfield. In the North the negro competes with white labor. In the South he constitutes the laboring class. The time has come for him to make profitable overtures to the whites, and I talk as a friend of the negro of 40 years' standing."

"There are eight or ten colored people on my place, and about 150 or 200 in my precinct in Kentucky—all intelligent, excellent people. They all knew me and would vote as I suggested if I were to talk to them about politics."

The Colonel declares that Mr. Bryan has an excellent chance to win through the Brownsville incident.

"The changing of the negro vote from the Republican to the Democratic columns in New York, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois," he said, "would mean the loss of these states to the Republican ticket."

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE CLOSING

New Officers Elected For Coming Year—Close Week Session.

The Marshall County Teachers' Institute closed its annual session Friday afternoon. Prof. Cragwell of Wabash College, and Jackson of Wisconsin Normal, concluded their series of lectures. Friday afternoon officers were chosen for the coming year. Miss Nettie Corse was elected secretary, and the present treasurer Mr. Laird, was reelected. Auditing committee reported expenses to the amount of $234.68 with a balance on hand of $104.98. Resolutions were read, which were ordered distributed to the press of the county.

Institute Resolutions.

The committee on Resolutions at the Marshall County Teachers' Institute made the following report, which was adopted:

We, the public school teachers of Marshall county, at the close of our annual Institute Session for the year 1908, hereby express our sentiments in the following resolutions—

1. That we commend our County Superintendent for his making a pleasant and profitable program for the week, and for his policy of progress in the direction of the schools. That we congratulate ourselves on our splendid showing in attendance and interest, and our advantage in the superior instruction of the week.

2. That we fully sympathize with the movement for better school sanitation, and we urge each teacher to bring his individual school surroundings up to the standard set by our able Boards of Education and of Health.

3. That we are heartily in sympathy with the present school laws relative to the better qualification of the teachers and their better remuneration for services. That we stand against any change in these laws unless it be to strengthen those now in force. That we pledge our best energies to make these laws operative in spirit as well as in letter.

Michigan Peach Crop Best in Years.

Prof. L. R. Taft, of the Michigan Agricultural college, who, in the course of his observations, has visited all parts of the Michigan fruit belt, said: "The peach crop will be the best that Michigan has had for several years. Especially is this true in the northern part of the peach belt—in Oceana, Mason, Benzie and Grand Traverse counties. In the southern part—in Allegan, Van Buren and Berrien—the crop will not be so large because of the freeze in October of 1906, which killed so many of the trees. The crop will be placed on the market earlier this year than for the last two years."

MAXIM'S NEW GUN SUCCESS.

Report Resembles Hammer Click on Empty Shell at 1500 Yards

Army officers at Springfield, Mass., declare that the noiseless device of Hiram P. Maxim, as attached to the regulation United States army rifle is a success. In experiments on the ranges there Maxim's device cut down the sound area of the shot from 5700 yards to 1500 yards, at which distance the report of the fire arm was similar to the click of a hammer on an empty shell. The men firing the test shots said there was practically no noise as the bullet left the barrel. The loss in the bullet's velocity is estimated at five per cent.

She and her family were for many years residents of Plymouth, but for the past few years resided at Kokomo. She leaves besides her husband two sons, Joseph and Lincoln Geik and one daughter, Mary Elizabeth Shoemaker.

CITY SCHOOLS OPEN MONDAY

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS WILL ENROLL FRIDAY—BUILDINGS HAVE BEEN REFINISHED THROUGHOUT.

The Public and Catholic schools of this city, open for the fall term on next Monday, September 7th. High school students will enroll at the Superintendent's office, in the Washington school building on Friday. On Saturday morning all of the teachers will meet with their principals at their respective buildings. A short session of school will be held Monday for the purpose of outlining the work and methods to be pursued. Then school will be dismissed for the Labor Day picnic.

Both public school buildings have been refinished throughout. In the Washington building the halls and rooms have been repainted, new furniture installed, and five rooms, F, G, H, L and M, are being fitted up with new slate blackboards.

Superintendent Randall estimates the high school enrollment to exceed 200 this year. Last year it was 181.

LAKEVILLE BOY ARRESTED.

Young Woman Causes Arrest, But Settles Out of Court.

Melvin Buss, 20 years old, and the son of Edwin Buss, a St. Joseph county farmer, living near Lakeville, and who is quite wealthy, owning a large farm, was arrested by Goshen officers and taken to Goshen to answer a paternity charge brought by Mary Stiver, the 18-year-old daughter of Frank Stiver, residing near Baintown. After spending a day in jail Buss was helped out by his father and grandfather, who went to Goshen and employed counsel for him. Buss then settled by paying Miss Stiver $300.

Accepts Position in Warsaw.

Paul Singrey went to Warsaw Thursday, where he has accepted a position in the county auditor's office for a few weeks.

REPUBLICANS ARE CONFIDENT

FIGURES SHOW THAT THE PARTY WILL WIN IN NATION AND ALSO IN THIRTEENTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

Republican confidence is based largely upon the magnificent physical strength of their fortress, upon their great normal preponderance in most of the states, which the enemy must conquer if victory is to perch upon his banners. Let some observers should overlook the importance of this strength, of this existing condition, it is well to refresh the memory, for as the campaign goes on this static fact is one which must necessarily be often taken into consideration. In a total of 14,000,000 votes in 1900 McKinley had over Bryan 850,000. In a total vote of 13,500,000 in 1904 Roosevelt had over Parker 2,500,000. In the northern states alone, omitting the so-called "solid South" but including Missouri, Kentucky and Maryland, Roosevelt's plurality over Parker was 3,050,000. In 1900 Bryan carried only four northern states—Colorado, Idaho, Montana and Nevada—and in 1904 Parker carried no northern state. In 1906 237 representatives in Congress were elected in the northern states, and only forty-seven of these were Democrats.

Since the presidential election of 1904 elections for governor or other officials have been held in twenty-nine northern states, the Republicans carrying twenty-five states, with aggregate pluralities of 856,000, while the Democrats carried four states, with aggregate pluralities of 87,000.

In the Thirteenth district the Republicans had an overwhelming majority in 1904 but the result was close two years ago.

In the following table is given the vote for congress and secretary of state. Brick and Shively, as nominees for congress, headed the county ticket throughout the district, while the names of James F. Cox, Democrat, and Fred A. Sims, Republican, appeared at the head of their respective state tickets. The vote in the seven counties composing the district is thus recorded:

Shively Brick Cox Sims
Elkhart 4,115 4,833 3,781 5,069
Fulton 2,166 2,253 2,108 2,287
Kosciusko 3,419 3,338 3,042 3,646
Marshall 3,082 2,288 2,877 2,476
Pulaski 1,556 1,413 1,586 1,448
Starke 1,067 1,241 1,048 1,271
St. Joseph 7,748 7,964 7,500 8,035

23153 23360 21942 24232

The combined vote of Brick and Shively was 46,513, while that of Cox and Sims was 46,174 a difference of 339. But Brick ran behind Sims 872, while Shively ran ahead of Cox 1311.

Put here are some facts and figures which must be taken into account in figuring on this district. Besides Brick and Shively there were two other candidates for congress—Isaac G. Shaw, Prohibitionist, and Charles R. Heath, Socialist. Shaw polled in the district 1468 votes; Heath 724—or a combined vote of 2192.

Both the Prohibitionists and the Socialists stoutly maintain that their vote in the district will be much larger this year than it was two years ago. They may be right and again they may be woefully in error in their calculations.

Shaw got his 1468 votes in these localities: In Elkhart county, 571; Fulton, 137; Kosciusko, 172; Marshall, 204; Pulaski, 187; Starke, 24; St. Joseph, 223; Total, 1468.

Heath's vote is thus credited: To Elkhart county, 316; Fulton, 15; Kosciusko, 8; Marshall, 23; Pulaski, 10; Starke, 35; St. Joseph, 317; Total 724.

The prohibition vote for secretary of state, in the district was: Elkhart county, 628; Fulton, 179; Kosciusko, 235; Marshall, 244; Pulaski, 146; Starke, 39; St. Joseph, 262.

The Socialist vote for secretary of state was: Elkhart county, 315; Fulton, 22; Kosciusko, 13; Marshall 30; Pulaski, 12; Starke 30; St. Joseph, 236.

There were also cast some votes for the nominees of the Peoples and the Social Labor parties, but the aggregate did not amount to much.

Give Interesting Recital.

The Misses Arlie and Grace Clifford of Kewanna, delivered a complimentary recital at Bremen Saturday, which was highly successful and greatly appreciated by all.

Mrs. C. F. Schilt was hostess and about sixty ladies were present. The recital consisted of piano and vocal solos and duos. The program consisted of eight numbers, with two or three parts each.

These young ladies are distinguishing themselves by their extraordinary musical abilities, their music charms wherever they appear.

TRYING TO CHANGE SILVER INTO GOLD.

Sir William Ramsay Interests French Scientists.

The French public has been fascinated by Sir William Ramsay's discussion of the transmutation of metals by means of radium emanations. Sir William is now devoting his efforts into transmuting silver into gold.

He admits that all experiments thus far show that the tendency is to reduce metals to the baser orders, that is, to those of lower atomic gravity. He urges, however, that the tremendous energy of radium emanations might as well be constructive as destructive, and this is the point he is now testing.

There are, or ought to be, two metals between gold and silver, according to the laws of chemistry, one caesium, which has already been discovered, and the other argentaurum, which has been named in advance. He hopes to succeed in changing silver into one of the three next above it in scale.

What Hurts the Brewers.

About one hundred representatives of the German societies of the state, largely from the big beer cities of the state, met at Indianapolis recently and assumed to voice the sentiments of some 50,000 voters which they claimed to represent. They were long on "personal liberty" and short on moral reform. They jumped on the Anti-Saloon League for "pernicious activity" in politics. At the same time these representatives of social organizations went on record as endorsing the Democratic ticket into.

The Anti-Saloon League is not engaged in partisan politics. In some cases the league endorses Democrats and some times it endorses Republicans for office. It favors county local option, and that is what hurts the brewers and their friends.

ORGANIZATION IS COMPLETED

REPUB. CLUB OF COUNTY ELECTS OFFICERS AND SETS WEEKLY MEETING NIGHT—DR. STEPHENS PRES.

The organization of a Republican club in Marshall county was completed at Republican headquarters Saturday night. A large crowd of enthusiastic Republicans was present. It was decided by unanimous consent to make it a county organization, instead of a township one, as first proposed. Officers were elected as follows: President, Dr. R. C. Stephens, first vice president, Wm. H. Conger; second vice president, J. F. Ray. It was decided that the president and vice presidents should appoint the secretary. Monroe Steiner was appointed organizer. He will tour the county and establish similar clubs in every township. Meetings will be held at Republican headquarters every Thursday evening. An executive board of three members will also be appointed by the president. The purpose of the club is to aid the county committee in the coming campaign and elect a full county ticket this fall.

Entertained for Classmate.

Miss Estella Chase entertained a number of Sunday school classmates of Emory E. Hess, at her home Sunday evening. There were present Walter Dickenson and wife, Earl North and wife, James O. Parks and wife, Mrs. Albert Hume, Hayes Munn and Ralph Jacoby.

The event was in honor of the marriage of Mr. Hess to Miss Shirley Maxwell, which occurred at the home of the latter at Crawfordsville, Ind., Saturday.

Emory Hess is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hess, former residents of this city. He is employed by the firm of Douglas, Lain and Douglas, corporation lawyers at Seattle, Wash., and leaves with his bride for his home Tuesday.

IS A MARRIED MAN.

Earl Houghton Springs Surprise On Friends by Taking On Role of Benedict.

Earl L. Houghton, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Houghton, was united in marriage to Miss Emma Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lee, Saturday afternoon last. The knot was tied by Rev. E. Miller of the Christian church.

This culmination of a pretty romance was a complete surprise to the many friends of both—so complete in fact that they have not sufficiently recovered to organize a "belling" for the happy couple. "Hap" Houghton has the laugh on all of them, and has our

Shouts For Taft and Square Deal

"I am for Mr. Taft for President because he stands for a square deal with railroads and railroad men."

Using these words as a theme, Theodore P. Shonts, president of the Chicago & Alton and the Clover Leaf railroads and former chairman of the Panama canal commission, in an interview in Chicago, amplified his reasons for supporting the Republican nominee for the presidency.

"Being a railroad man myself," said Mr. Shonts, "I naturally stand for and believe in railroads and railroad men."

"Mr. Taft's views can be readily gathered from public utterances, both from his speech of acceptance and from the full statement that he made in his speech at Columbus, Aug. 19, 1907, and it's upon these that I rely in what I say here."

"First, we believe that our national growth and well-being depend, more than any other one thing, upon the character and extent of our transportation facilities. Mr. Taft in his letter of acceptance says, 'Good business for the railroads is essential to general prosperity,' and, again, 'New railroad construction * * * in returning prosperous times is sure to be essential to our material progress.'"

"Second, we believe that the vast sums which annually will be required by the railroads to enable them to provide the increased facilities necessary to handle the constantly increasing traffic of the country can only be obtained by first receiving a remuneration sufficient to not only pay a fair return on the cost of the service rendered, but also to cover the risk incident to the nature of the business; and, second, by receiving the assurance that they will be permitted to operate their properties on a business basis; that is to say, having in mind, on the one hand, the traffic requirements of the communities served, and on the other their ability to perform that service required."

"In view of Mr. Taft's position on these important questions it seems to me that every intelligent and thoughtful railroad man should vote and work for the election of the man who publicly stands for everything that is vital to the well-being of railroads and railroad men."

Mayor's Proclamation.

Mayor H. A. Logan has issued a proclamation extending the customary time for disposing of straw hats from Sept. 1st to Sept. 14th. The reason for the extension is on account of the return of hot weather. Little boys, will hereby take notice that wearers of straw hats are not to be "hooted at" until after the 14th.

73d Annual Reunion.

The survivors of the 73rd Indiana Infantry will hold their annual reunion this year at Lowell, which will occur September 16th and 17th. At this time the roll will be called again and the ranks will be found thinned from last year. Marshall county has a number of veterans that are members of the 73rd.

Many Men Retire.

Papers are being prepared for the retirement of a large number of veteran railroad men on the Pennsylvania lines next month. Several of the men are shop men and train men who have reached the age limit of seventy years, and it is officially announced that the number of veterans to be retired this year will exceed that of any previous year.

See the Rube Band.

Next Thursday evening a Rube band will conclude this season's open air concerts. The Plymouth band will also be in attendance and it looks like a "hot time in the Old Town" on Thursday evening.

DON'T MOVE AFTER FRIDAY.

If You Do You Will Lose Your Vote This Year.

The 6,468 precinct committee-men of Indiana will spend practically all of this week in taking a poll of the state. This is the 60 day poll which is regarded as important by both parties. There are 3,234 precincts in Indiana, and each has a Republican and Democratic committee-men. Additional workers will aid in populous districts and those of extended territory.

The party managers are emphasizing the fact that if a man moves out of his township or ward after next Friday he will lose his vote. The statute defining the eligibility for voting, requires 'six months' residence in the state, sixty days in the township or ward and thirty days in the precinct. Election day falls this year on Nov. 3rd.

12th INDIANA REUNION.

Members of the Twelfth Indiana Infantry Will Meet in Warsaw Next Month.

Both organizations of the 12th Indiana Volunteer Infantry will hold a reunion in Warsaw on Tuesday and Wednesday, September 29 and 30. A big campfire will be held at the opera house on Tuesday evening, to which all old soldiers and the public in general will be invited. For the two days an elaborate program is being prepared and it is expected that a large number of the members of the 12th will attend. The regiment has not held a reunion for several years and as the addresses of many are not known it is requested that the newspapers of northern Indiana make the date of the meeting known to all. Harry Bennett is president of the reunion association and Thomas R. Boulton is secretary.

VETERANS CAN NOT MARRY

THAT IS, THOSE WHO ARE IN SOLDIERS' HOME AT LAFAYETTE HAVE RECEIVED ORDERS TO THAT EFFECT.

Cupid has received a knock-out blow at the State Soldiers' Home at Lafayette, the board of trustees having issued an order forbidding the marriage of members of the home. The order prohibits marriages between members of the home and marriages of veterans to women outside the institution. As the order is mandatory, it is probable that the county clerk has issued his last license to veterans of the State Home.

Heretofore the clerk's office has received quite an income from the frequent weddings at the institution. The trustees debated the question at length before they took the drastic action. It was a serious problem, as marriages were frequent and in most cases were unhappy and led to domestic troubles and complications of the most grievous sort. Frequently the veterans would marry young women outside the home and bring them to the institution. The young wives did not find a welcome from the widows at the home and their relations were most unpleasant.

In the general order which has just been issued and which is already in effect, the trustees quote the marriage law referring particularly to those sections which prohibit the marriage of men unable to maintain a family and men who have been members of a home for indigent people within five years from the date of application for a marriage license. This last clause, the trustees say, makes the marriages of members of the home illegal. In making application for license the veterans have answered the question regarding membership in a home for the indigent in the negative, and this, the trustees hold, amounts to a perjury. "Since the marriages of members of the home are illegal under the law," said Col. R. M. Smock, commandant, "we are not going to permit persons illegally married to remain at the home. If the rule is disobeyed the violator must leave the home."

The revenues to county clerk and justices of the peace by reason of the frequent marriages of veterans at the home have amounted to considerable sums.

CHURCH CLOSING FISCAL YEAR

UNDER THE DIRECTORSHIP OF REV. PALMER METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH MADE MATERIAL GAINS.

The fiscal year for the Methodist church in this city, ended Monday August 31st. The closing services were held Sunday morning and evening.

During the past year under the pastorate of the Rev. Dr. J. H. Palmer, the Methodist church of this city, passed the most prosperous year in its history. During the year the church has advanced in every department, the Sunday school classes have been bettered, and increased in attendance, financial conditions prospered, an increased interest has been taken in regular prayer meetings, more benevolent work was done than ever before. In the past year the membership was increased by sixty. Seventeen funerals were held during the year and twelve weddings. Five members were lost by death. The membership of the church is now four hundred.

Dr. Palmer came to Plymouth from Covington to begin his work here on Sept. 1st last. The northwest Indiana conference will be held at Attica this year, convening at that city on September 2nd. Bishop Berry of Buffalo, N. Y. will preside, it being his first visit as bishop to this conference.

From a Utah Subscriber.

Editor Tribune:—With my family, I have just recently moved from Oxford, Ind., to Salt Lake City, Utah, and thought I would write you concerning my new home.

On the 12th inst. we left Chicago, over Omaha, Cheyenne, Ogden to this place. To note the improvements since my last visit here in the way of building, you can hardly help thinking the Pacific has increased rather than diminished activities in business. Heavy rain falls here in the early part of the season similar to those in Indiana. There are bountiful crops of grain and abundance of fruit, apples, peaches, apricots, plums etc. The rich and fertile soil of the Salt river valley yields abundantly, although not without irrigation.

The city is growing very rapidly and may deserve being called an ideal place to live. Few except Eastern and American people compose the population. The absence of smoke and dust is accounted for in the fact that all of the factories are outside the city limits. The wide and well-paved streets are kept clean by flushing into the gutters the filth which is carried away by a constant flow of water from the irrigating system. The city is supplied with pure sparkling water from the mountains. The reservoirs are at a sufficient height in the mountains to do away with the expense of standpipes and pumping stations. The climate is an ideal one and must be said to be much admired and enjoyed by many who are afflicted. These people owe a debt of gratitude to the climate for doing what medical aid failed to do. We were glad to meet former Plymouth people. Mr. H. H. Bonham is engaged in business here and expresses himself as being truly pleased with his new situation. We better acquainted with Ed. S. Brook former editor of the Tribune, who came here in 1900. Through his courtesy we were shown over the city. Every one is in good health and seemingly prosperous.

Will close now for present, Very truly yours, Isaac Brown, Salt Lake City Utah, Aug. 29.

Old Settlers' Picnic.

The Old Settlers' Picnic at Lapaz, was attended by an estimated crowd of 4000 Saturday. Speaking, and the ball game between Plymouth and Lakeville, were the principal amusements. Candidates were visible everywhere, getting acquainted with the crowds. Among them were Chas. W. Miller, Judge Bernetha, Wm. F. Hess, Harry Under.

They will make their home in Croton, O., where the former has associated himself with his father in the publication of the Croton Citizen. Both are well known in Plymouth.

GOOSE EGG KOSCIUSKO COUNTY.

Clippers Shut Out Combined Teams, Score 8 to 0.

The Plymouth Clippers shut out the combined teams of Warsaw, Winona, Milford and Leesburg at the local diamond Friday afternoon by score of 8 to 0. The game was a fast one, comprising 1 hour and 15 minutes. The scores were made mostly off the visitors' errors. Umpire S. N. Stevens.

Leaves for Conference.

Rev. J. H. Palmer left for the Northwest Indiana conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, to be held at Attica, Tuesday. Rev. Palmer leaves with the pastoral claim paid in full. This is a better showing than that made last year when $200 had to be borrowed.
